Will Electric Cars Save the World? Lomiko Metals to Present at Byron Capital's 2010 Electric Metals Conference

(Vancouver, Toronto) LOMIKO METALS INC. (TSX-V:LMR, OTCQX: LMRMF, Europe: ISIN: CA54163Q1028, WKN: A0Q9W7,) ("Lomiko" or "the Company") will present at the Electric Metals Conference sponsored by Byron Capital Markets. The conference will be held Wednesday, April 14, 2010 at the King Edward Hotel, 35 King St. East in Toronto. Featured speakers included Jon Hykawy, Analyst on "How Electric Cars Will Save the World". The conference focuses on Exploration, Development and Supply and Demand for Lithium, Vanadium and Rare Earth Metals.

Lomiko Metals Inc. is a Canadian-based junior company whose objective is to increase shareholder value through the acquisition and exploration of high quality mineral mining projects and development into a fully integrated battery supplier. Lomiko is currently exploring for salt brines that contain lithium, sodium, sulfate, chloride and potash in salt lakes or salars. Lomiko's growth strategy is to become a fully integrated supplier of lithium ion batteries. The potential for partnership in creating rechargeable lithium batteries to replace current polluting methods of energy is excellent in the newly developing electric car industry. Interest in lithium and lithium batteries is growing exponentially. The Company is committed to its development program and in showing corporate social and environmental stewardship in the arena.
